

Chairman George Miller Joins Mahoney, FL Superintendents, Teachers to Discuss No Child Left Behind

(Port Charlotte, FL) - Chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee George Miller and Congressman Tim Mahoney (FL-16) will meet with superintendents, teachers, and school board members from nine Florida counties to discuss the reauthorization of No Child Left Behind, at Neil Armstrong Elementary School in Port Charlotte on Monday. Chairman Miller and Congressman Mahoney will also serve breakfast to students and read to a third grade class.

Who: Congressman George Miller, Chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee

Congressman Tim Mahoney (FL-16)

What:

Chairman Miller and Congressman Mahoney will meet with Florida superintendents, school board members, and teachers to discuss No Child Left Behind and other education issues affecting Florida students and teachers.

When:

Tuesday, August 28, 2007

Where:

Neil Armstrong Elementary School 22485 Foote Ave Port Charlotte FL 33952

Itinerary:

7:00 - 7:45 am Miller and Mahoney Serve Breakfast to Students

Chairman Miller and Congressman Mahoney will serve breakfast to students at Neil Armstrong Elementary participating in the federally-funded free School Breakfast Program.

9:00 - 10:30 am Meeting with School Board Members from across FL-16

Chairman Miller and Congressman Mahoney will meet with FL superintendents and school board members from Charlotte, Glades, Highlands, Martin, Okeechobee, Palm Beach, St. Lucie, Hendry, and Indian River Counties to discuss the reauthorization of No Child Left Behind.

10:45 - 11:15 am Miller and Mahoney Read to School Children

Chairman Miller and Congressman Mahoney will read to a 3rd grade class at Neil Armstrong Elementary

-###-