

Insurance

Florida's families and businesses are struggling under the skyrocketing costs of homeowners insurance. As a member of the Financial Services Committee, Tim Mahoney will work to solve the insurance crisis that is facing Florida. He will fight for solutions such as a national catastrophic fund that will lower rates, guarantee full coverage for all Floridians, and ensure that families can afford to live in our communities.

Congressman Mahoney and Congressman Klein held a hearing in West Palm Beach to get input from local homeowners on their Homeowners Insurance Bill
